

Big Ball of Questions For K-5

Inspired by Poudre High School, Colorado

Instructions

1. On a large beach ball, using a permanent marker, write as many numbers as can fit without touching, up to 40.
2. Have participants gather in a circle. Play music. Toss the ball from one person to another until the music stops.
3. Have the person holding the ball look for the number closest to or under their right thumb. Read out that question and have that person answer.
4. Alternately, you can have several participants answer, to lessen the pressure on just one person.
